Website Accessibility Statement

This accessibility statement applies to Chilton Town Council.

We want as many people as possible to be able to use this website. AbilityNet has advice on making your device easier to use if you have a disability.

The current version of this website was launched in 2016, but some individual elements of it may not have been updated since then.

How accessible the site is

If you need information on this website in a different format or have any feedback, please email us at info@chiltondurham-tc.gov.uk.

Reporting accessibility problems with this website

We're always looking to improve the accessibility of this website. If you find any problems not listed on this page or think we're not meeting accessibility requirements, please use our contact us page.

Enforcement procedure

The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) is responsible for enforcing the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018 (the 'accessibility regulations'). If you're not happy with how we respond to your complaint, contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service (EASS).

Technical information about this website's accessibility
